

Recognition, Reparation and Reconciliation: The Light and Shadow of Historical Trauma

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

WEDNESDAY 5 DECEMBER 2018

12:00-13:00	Conference Registration	(First Round)		Theology Building Foyer
Workshops
Time	Workshop name	Description	Facilitator	Venue
9:00 – 14:00	The Aftermath	This is a Closed Colloquium	Emery Kalema, Stellenbosch University; Nancy Rushahora, Stellenbosch University	Historical Trauma and Transformation, Boardroom
14:00-16:00	Transforming Trauma through Art: Finding Light in the Shadows REGISTER HERE	Visual arts activities; shifting perspectives of memories of injustice	Farieda Nazier University of Johannesburg; Kim Berman, University of Johannesburg	Theology Building Room 1006 2nd Floor
14:00-16:00	Know Thyself: A Mind-Body Approach to Understanding the Impact of Transgenerational Trauma REGISTER HERE	Mind-body experiential workshop incorporating first-person and intersubjective inquiry about the impacts of historical trauma.	Dominique Malebranche; Gabriel Corens The Trauma Center at JRI	Theology Building Hofmeyr Room 1st Floor
14:00-16:00	Thriving in the Workplace in the Face of Historical Woundedness REGISTER HERE	Holding space to honour the legacy of historical woundedness in South Africa.	Undine Whande; Lawrence Ngorora	Theology Building Room 1003 1st Floor
16.00-17.30	Conference Registration	(Second Round)		Foyer
16.00	TEA / COFFEE			Lower Corridor
16:00-17:00	Poster presentations	Individual poster sessions running in parallel	DOWNLOAD LINK	Theology Building, Upper Corridor
Screening of Films and Conference Reception
17:30-19:00	Film name	Presented by	Respondent	Venue
Film I	Between Joyce and Remembrance MORE INFO	Mark Kaplan, Grey Matter Media	Lukhanyo Calata, Reporter/Author, Cape Town	Theology Building Attie van Wyk Auditorium
Film II	Armagh Stories: Voices from the Gaol MORE INFO	Cahal McLaughlin, Queens University, Belfast	Sarah Jayne Smith Queen's University	Theology Building Raadsaal Room 2nd Floor
Film III	Zulu Love Lette MORE INFO	Bhekizizwe Peterson, Wits University	Marietjie Oelofsen, Stellenbosch University	Theology Building Hofmeyr 2nd Floor
19:30	Cocktail Reception with conference delegates			Theology Building Marquee

THURSDAY 6 DECEMBER 2018

Time	Event Name	Speaker	Venue
8:30 - 9:00	Welcoming	Conference Organisers	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
	& Opening Remarks	Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela Chair of Conference Committee
9:00-10:00	Keynote Address	A Memory of Neighbours: On History and the Afterlife Homi Bhabha, Harvard University Chair: Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
10:00 -11:00		SIGRID RAUSING DIALOGUES: PARALLEL SESSIONS WITH STORY TELLERS
Coordinator of the Sigrid Rausing Dialogues: Theresa Edlmann. The Sigrid Rausing Dialogues are a signature event of our triennial series of conferences. The sessions are an opportunity for conference delegates to be in the role of witnesses to stories of loss and/or other kinds of trauma during periods of mass violence in their countries. This year's SR Dialogues will focus on encounters between victims and perpetrators, and children or descendants of victims recounting their encounter with their parents' killers or their descendants.
Story Tellers		Facilitator	Venue
Candice Mama, Radio Host and Fashion Brand Ambassador, Johannesburg Forgiving apartheid-era police Eugene de Kock, her father's killer.		Jonathan Jansen, Stellenbosch University	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
Denis Karagodin, National Research Tomsk State University, Siberia, Russia His search for his great grand-father's executioner in Stalin's Gulag, and meeting the grand-daughter of the executioner who asked for his forgiveness.		Katya Tolstaya, Vrije Universiteit, Amsterdam	Raadsaal
Ginn Fourie, Quantum Energy Coach (Daughter killed by antiapartheid organization, PAC.) Margaret River, Western Australia. In conversation with Letlapa Mphahlele, former leader of the armed wing of the Pan Africanist Congress (PAC) who ordered the operation in which her daughter was killed.		Wilhelm Verwoerd, Stellenbosch University	Hofmeyr
Siyah Mgoduka, Assistant Preparator at the Zeitz Museum of African Art on his refusal to meet with Eugene de Kock who designed the bomb planted in the car in which his father was killed, and who was forgiven by his mother. In conversation with his mother, Doreen Mgoduka, Attorney, Port Elizabeth, South Africa. The session is a discussion on the video installation based on the story of Siyah speaking to his mother for the first time about the killing of his father when he was just a toddler.		Penny Siopis, Michaelis School of Fine Art, University of Cape Town	Chapel

Thursday 6 December programme continued

11:00-11:30	TEA/COFFEE	Lower Corridor & Courtyard
11:30-12:00	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session Title	Room
A	Advocacy memorials: Linking symbolic and material reparations in Uganda Kara Blackmore, LSE Chair: Friederike Bubbenzer	1006
B	Voices of Georgetown University Enslaved Descendants: A Way to Meaningful Repair Linda Mann, Georgetown Memory Project, Washington DC Chair: Jonathan Percalle	Raadsaal
C	Reburials, Memory and the Politics of 'Reconciliation' In Matabeleland, Zimbabwe: 'Gukurahundi' and Intergenerational Repercussions Shari Eppel, Ukuthula Trust/Solidarity Peace Trust, Zimbabwe Chair: Webster Zambara	Hofmeyr
12:00-12:30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session #	Session Title	Room
A	Resisters to Conscription In 1980s South Africa: Troubled Legacies Paul Mason, Rhodes University Chair: Erica Lombard	1006
B	Contestations over traditional reconciliation in Zimbabwe Diane Jeater, University of Liverpool, UK Chair: Emery Kalema	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
C	Reparative remembering, cross-community history-making and legacies of the Northern Irish conflict on West Belfast interfaces Graham Dawson, University of Brighton, UK Chair: Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela	Hofmeyr
D	"Our forbidden places": Intergenerational Dynamics of Historical Trauma in Postcolonial Morocco Sonja Hegasy, Leibniz-Zentrum Moderner Orient, Germany Chair: Louise Chappell	Raadsaal
12:30-13:00	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	Who Gets to Speak In Australia? Leah Purcell's The Drover's Wife as counternarrative of domination, repression and oppression Kathryn Keeble, Deakin University, Australia Chair: Andrea Durbach	Hofmeyr

Thursday 6 December programme continued

B	Writing for (post)colonial recognition: Women from Tahiti and New Caledonia moving beyond victimhood Nathalie Segeral, University of Hawaii Chair: Samantha van Schalkwyk	Raadsaal
C	Post-apartheid trauma and existential despair: The meaning of healing in an age of chaos. Kim Wale, Stellenbosch University Chair: Gael Beckett	1003
D		1006
13:00-14:00	LUNCH	Marquee
14:00-14:30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	Intergenerational transmissions of trauma—a critique: Recognizing trauma among less empowered groups Diane Wolf, University of California, Davis Chair: Lauren Gower	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
B	Making memory meaningful: Reflections from Sierra Leone Friederike Mieth, Independent scholar, Germany Chair: Adebayo Sakiru	1002
C	Reconciling words—The unspeakable question of language in the midst of violence Erik Doxtader, University of South Carolina Chair: Tim Murithi	Hofmeyr
D	Hole in the ground: Haunted places and memory in postauthoritarian Indonesia. Kar Yen Leong, Tamkang University, Taiwan Chair: Nicki Hitchcott	1006
14:30-15:00	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	Resilience as neoliberal mythology: Examining narratives of Holocaust survivor 'success' and 'failure' in Canada Anna Sheftel, Saint Paul University, Canada Chair: Christian Vium	1002
B	Forgive and Forget? Theological-Ethical Reflections on a Mismatched Pair Christine Schliesser, Zurich University Chair: Shanaaz Hoosain	Hofmeyr

Thursday 6 December programme continued

C	Traumatic pasts and memory cultures in 20th Century Europe Emilia Salvanou, Hellenic Open University, Greece Chair: Graham Dawson	John Murray
D	Microclimates of racial meaning attendant to histories of white supremacist violence in the United States Geoff Ward, Washington University in Saint Louis Chair: Sheron Davenport	Raadsaal
15:00-15:30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	Irish Republicanisms and the politics of radical nostalgia Stephen Hopkins, University of Leicester, UK Chair: Sarah Jayne Smith	1006
B	White Nostalgia – A thorny mode of memory in postapartheid public discourse in South Africa Erica Lombard, UCT Chair: Wandile Kasibe	John Murray
C	Case illustrating the use of idealized nostalgia, love and hatred in transgenerational transmission of trauma in a German-Jewish family and its relevance for South Africa Anthony Hamburger, Ububele—the Psychotherapy & Educational Trust, Johannesburg Chair: Jessica Benjamin	Hofmeyr
D	Activism, diaspora politics and the disappeared: Exploring nostalgia, trauma and an intergenerational transferal of political memory struggle in Northern Sri Lanka Rebekka Friedman, King's College, London Chair: Kim Wale	Raadsaal
15:30-16:00	TEA/COFFEE	Lower Corridor & Courtyard
16:00-17:15	ROUND TABLE DISCUSSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
I	'Hope and disenchantment': reparations and reconciliation in a comparative context Penelope Andrews, University of Cape Town Andrea Durbach, University of New South Wales, Sydney Linda Greene, University of Wisconsin-Madison Louise Chappell, Australian Human Rights Institute, University of New South Wales, Sydney Chair: Robert Westley	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
II	In pursuit of livable lives: Exploring a radical politics of co-habitation Susan Spearey, Brock University, Canada; Helene Strauss, University of Free State, Bloemfontein; Jesse Arseneault, Concordia University, Montréal; Vanessa Farr, University of the Free State, Bloemfontein Chair: Christine Schliesser	Hofmeyr

Thursday 6 December programme continued

III	Contemporary Education Policy as Continued Racial Violence Against Black Americans Steven Nelson, University of Memphis, Tennessee; Shayla Kolheim, University of Memphis; Sheron Davenport, University of Memphis; Teresa Leary Jenkins, University of Memphis Chair: Liezl Dick	1006
17:15-18:30	PANEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
I	Memorizing forwards in the aftermath of genocide and Gacaca in Rwanda. Angela Jansen, Community Based Sociotherapy (CBS), Rwanda; Chantal Ingabire, CBS, Rwanda Chair: Annemiek Richters, Leiden University	Raadsaal
II	Dealing with the Past in Zimbabwe Dumisani Ngwenya, Durban University of Technology: The dilemma and dangers of Gukurahundi transgenerational trauma in Matebeleland, Zimbabwe; Gift Mwonzora, Rhodes University, South Africa: Debunking the contemporary reconciliation and transitional justice processes in Zimbabwe; Maureen Shonge, UN Women, Zimbabwe: Dealing with the past—the case of Zimbabwe’s National Peace and Reconciliation Commission Chair: Shari Eppel	1003
III	Reckoning with the legacies of white supremacy in the contemporary South Nan Elizabeth Woodruff, Pennsylvania State University Bill and Rita Bender, Skellenger, Bender, Law Firm Dianna Freelon-Foster, Southern Echo, Mississippi Chair: Margaret Burnham	1006
18:30-19:30	PLENARY SESSION
	Lindiwe Hani: My conversations with Janusz Walus, the man who assassinated my father, Chris Hani. Facilitator: Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
19:30-20:30	Drinks and Light Snacks	Courtyard Conversations

FRIDAY 7 DECEMBER

8:30-9:30	PLENARY SESSION: KEYNOTE LECTURE	Venue
	Death and Life at the Site of Address Cathy Caruth, Cornell University Chair: Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
9:30-10:00	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	Nadeem Aslam's The Waste Vigil: Individual and cultural trauma and the value of empathy in the aftermath of the 9/11 attack. Vanessa Montesi, University of Lisbon, Portugal Chair: Cilliers van den Berg	1006
B	Postcolonizing trauma studies: The recognition-solidarity nexus in Uwem Akpan's Say You're One of Them Chijioke Kizito Onah, Goethe University, Frankfurt Chair: Gabriel Corens	Raadsaal
C	Trauma and nation building in Elie Wiesel's Dawn and Sindiwe Magona's Mother to Mother. Adam Levin, University of Pretoria Chair: Elke Geising	Hofmeyr
D	The limits of Atrocity trials to recognize and reconcile past trauma: Why they failed and how to improve them Shahram Dana, Griffith University, Australia Chair: Thomas Craemer	1003
10:00-10:30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	"Where are the children?": The politics of visual representation and the residential school experience in Native North America Cristina Stanciu, Virginia Commonwealth University, United States Chair: Stephanie Bird	1006
B	Adaptive re-use in post-conflict architectures: Re-purposing bricks in London and Berlin` Rebecca Clare Dolgoy, Carleton University, Canada Chair: Francesco Ferrari	John Murray
C	The documentary pact in fiction from Rwanda Nicki Hitchcott, University of St. Andrews Chair: Samantha van Schalkwyk	Hofmeyr
D	From Imihoro (machetes) to Amahoro (peace): Intergenerational Restorative Dialogues in post-genocide Rwanda Richard Benda, Luther King House Open College Chair: Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela	Raadsaal

Friday 7 December programme continued

10:30-11:00	TEA/COFFEE	Lower Corridor & Courtyard
11:00-11:30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	Just another tale of volatile times: Making sense of experiences with transformation in higher education Liezl Dick & Marguerite Muller, University of the Free State Chair: Borislava Manojlovic	1006
B	Rioting as writing: Protest, pain and the legibility of the naked body Sandra Young, University of Cape Town, South Africa Chair: Susannah Radstone	Hofmeyr
C	A decolonial humanities and the poor revolution Rajendra Chetty, University of the Western Cape, South Africa Chair: Antonio Traverso	Raadsaal
D	Affective Transmissions: A Pedagogy of Memory for the Generation After in Post-dictatorship Argentina Silvia Tandeciarz, College of William and Mary, Virginia Chair: Lyndal Pottier	1003
11:30-12:00	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	The post-traumatic ethics of Jewish whiteness from James Baldwin to Tony Eprile Naomi Taub, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign Chair: Stephanie Cawood	Hofmeyr
B	Lack of return in Nigeria-Biafra Civil war literature: A case for healing? Stephen David, Stellenbosch University Chair: Emery Kalema	Raadsaal
C	Truth-telling as confession of guilt: Light or shadow? Louis van der Riet, Stellenbosch University Chair: Dumisani Ngwenya	1006
D	The search for the disappeared and the pursuit of recognition in the Peruvian Highlands Eva Willems, Ghent University Belgium Chair: Helen Scanlon	1003
12:00-13:15	ROUNDTABLE PLENARY SESSION	Venue
	Dark Light: Coming Out of Trauma Sarah Nuttall, Wits Institute for Social and Economic Research A structured conversation ranging across the broad themes of the conference Respondents: Jessica Benjamin, Psychoanalyst, New York Jacqueline Rose, Birkbeck Institute for the Humanities	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
13:15-14:15	LUNCH	Marquee

Friday 7 December programme continued

14.15-15.15	POSTER PRESENTATIONS Individual poster sessions running in parallel	DOWNLOAD LINK	Upper Corridor
15:15-16:30	PARALLEL PANEL DISCUSSIONS
Session#	Session title	Venue
I	Gender Justice, Narratives of Gender-based Violence and Memory: Politics in Comparative Perspective Helen Scanlon, University of Cape Town Jelke Boesten, Kings College June Bam-Hutchison, University of Cape Town Chair: Marguerite Muller	1003
II	Recognition and Reconciliation in Postcolonial Scandinavia: Sápmi, Greenland, and the U.S. Virgin Islands Lill Tove Fredriksen, University of Tromsø Ebbe Volquardsen, Ilisimatusarfik/University of Greenland Lill-Ann Körber, Aarhus University, Denmark Chair: Siv Oevernes	1006
III	Stories North: Experiential Learning for Reconciliation, Social Change and New Narratives in Canada and beyond Kanina Holmes, Carleton University, Canada Megan Jensen, First Nations Yukon Community, Canada Teagyn Vallevand, First Nations Yukon Community Chair: Brenda Vellino	Hofmeyr
IV	Gender, Ethnic, and Spatial Dynamics in the Aftermath of Political Violence in Contemporary Latin America Karina Elizabeth Vázquez, University of Richmond Betina Kaplan, University of Georgia Leda Lozier, University of Georgia Evelyn Saavedra Autry, University of Georgia Chair: Samantha van Schalkwyk	Raadsaal
16:30-16.45	TEA/COFFEE		Lower Corridor & Courtyard
16:45-17:45	PLENARY DIALOGUE SESSION		Venue
	A Conversation – Living with the Past Albie Sachs and Homi Bhaba	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
18:30	Bus Departs for CONFERENCE DINNER Please ensure that you bring along your dinner ticket, which will be provided with your name badge. Transportation will depart the conference venue at 18h30. Busses will return to the conference venue after dinner.		Dornier Wine Estate

SATURDAY 8 DECEMBER

8:45-9:45	KEYNOTE ADDRESS	Venue
	The Implicated Subject: Rethinking Political Responsibility Michael Rothberg, UCLA Chair: Friederike Bubenzer	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
9:45-10:45	BLACK, WHITE & COLOURED SOUTH AFRICANS IN DIALOGUE
Session#	Session title	Venue
A	"I Am – The brutal thing itself": A case study of confronting whiteness through 'single identity work' Helgard Pretorius, Stellenbosch University Wimke Jurgens, Stellenbosch University Jaco Botha, Stellenbosch University Wilhelm Verwoerd, Stellenbosch University Chair: Theresa Edlmann, Stellenbosch University	Hofmeyr
B	"This Dialogue Thing": Reflection on sustained dialogue of a group of black and white women for more than five years. Martina Dahlmans, Author, Cape Town Asanda Saule Ngoasheng Julia Willand Facilitated by: Tumi Jonas, Stellenbosch University	1006
C	Dialogue on Intergenerational Trauma among a group of black and white clinicians. South African Psychoanalytic Institute (SAPI) Group, Johannesburg Mark Solms, University of Cape Town Mary-Anne Smith, SAPI, Johannesburg Chair: Lauren Gower, SAPI, Johannesburg	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
10:45-11:15	TEA/COFFEE	Corridor & Courtyard
11:15-11:45	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Venue
A	Towards the poetic justice of reparative citizenship Jaco Barnard Naudé, University of Cape Town Chair: Jacqueline Rose	Hofmeyr
B	Lack of pursuit of post-TRC prosecutions hampering an already fragile process of transformation, reconciliation and development in South Africa Hein Lubbe, North-West University, Potchefstroom Chair: Belinda Walzer	1006
C	Visual Redress at Stellenbosch University Elmarie Costandius, Stellenbosch University Chair: Adam Levin	Raadsaal

Saturday 8 December programme continued

D	The reparative dimensions of domestic human rights trials in Argentina. Rosario Figari Layus, University of Kassel Chair: Silvia Tandeciarz	1003
11:45-12:15	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	Transforming white resistance to historical responsibility: Insights from veteran peacemakers Wilhelm Verwoerd, Beyers Naude Centre, South Africa Chair: Melike Fourie	Hofmeyr
B	'Seeing like a state' – Postcolonial entanglements in coming to terms with the genocide in Namibia Reinhart Kössler, University of Freiburg, Germany Chair: Erica Lombard	Raadsaal
C	Psycho-social community programs in post-civil war Burundi and for refugees and asylum seekers living in Australia: A comparative approach Wendy Lambourne, University of Sydney, Australia Chair: Lydia Gitau	1006
D	The deconstruction of national images via contemporary Art in Turkey from 1990s to the present time Erdem Colak, University of Amsterdam Chair: Marietjie Oelofsen	1003
12:15-12:45	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Sessions#	Session title	Room
A	Of victims, perpetrators and the 'in between': The memory of love and the curious case of complicity in the Sierra Leonean civil war Adebayo Sakiru, Wits University, South Africa Chair: Rajendra Chetty	Raadsaal
B	Historical narratives and representations of the collective trauma of Guernica: Search For Sustainable Peace Through Education Borislava Manojlovic, George Mason University, South Korea Chair: Kim Wale	Hofmeyr
C	Perspectives on forgiveness and reconciliatory processes from Vladimir Jankélévitch's moral philosophy Francesco Ferrari, Fsu Jena, Germany Chair: Amal Kabesh	1006
D	Shaping futures by reclaiming pasts: Decolonial contestations of colonial memory in post-colonial Belgium (2010-present) Eline Mestdagh, Ghent University, Belgium Chair: Christo Thesnaar	1003
12:45-13:30	LUNCH	Marquee
13:30-14:00	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	Carrying the burden: Genocide commemoration in the Rwandan diaspora Catherine Gilbert, Ghent University, Belgium Chair: Rebecca Clare Dolgoy	Raadsaal

Saturday 8 December programme continued

B	The 1985 “Trojan Horse” Massacres in Two Cape Town Townships: Athlone and the untold story of Crossroads Shirley Gunn, Human Rights Media Centre, Cape Town Chair: Cahal McLoughlin	John Murray
C	Healing in the soil: Community building for reconciliation, resistance, and resilience Elizabeth Vibert, University of Victoria, Canada Chair: Elizabeth Swanson	Hofmeyr
D	Denial: Attack on memory and truth. Lessons from the Holocaust and its denial Georgi Verbeeck, Maastricht University, Netherlands Chair: Undine Whande	1003
14:00-14:30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	Hidden wounds: Exploring an intersectional understanding of violence in Jeremiah 5-6 Juliana Claassens, Stellenbosch University, South Africa Chair: Katya Tolstaya	Raadsaal
B	Legacies of lynching in the South and racially disparate corporal punishment in Southern schools in the United States James Pratt, Jr., University of California, Irvine Chair: Geoff Ward	1006
C	When history kills: Trauma, reconciliation, and history-making in postgenocide Rwanda Erin Mosely, Chapman University, Orange County, California Chair: Mellissa Nobles	Hofmeyr
D	Europe’s Refugee Crisis and the Shadows of Colonialism Wietske de Jong-Kumru, University of Flensburg Chair: Rebekka Friedman	1003
14:30-15:00	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	(Un)translatability and/of trauma: Elfriede Jelinek’s Die Kinder Der Toten Cilliers van den Berg, University of the Free State Chair: Stephen David	1006
B	Distrust and victimhood in post-conflict Rwanda in Paul Rusesabagina’s An Ordinary Man Aghogho Akpome, University of Zululand, South Africa Chair: Erin Mosely	Raadsaal
C	The capacity of narrativity in the realm of guilt, transgression and the need for healing. Ulrica Fritzson, Church of Sweden Chair: Lill Tove Fredriksen	1002
D	Haunting sites and touching memories: Activism, art, and symbolic reparations in Peru Margarita Saona, University of Illinois at Chicago Chair: Tamar Garb	Hofmeyr

Saturday 8 December programme continued

15:00-15:30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	Un)canning the victims: Ethno-drama as a critical embodied response to toxic narratives about Bosnian survivors of war related sexual violence Nena Mocnik, University of Turku, Finland Chair: Samantha van Schalkwyk	Hofmeyr
B	Gendered (in)securities and the memorialization of struggle: Dynamics of memory, space and gender in post-liberation South Africa and Uganda Stephanie Cawood, University of the Free State Chair: Helen Scanlon	Raadsaal
C	The pedagogies and politics of reconciliation: Mapping Social Practices for Social Change in Colombia, S. Africa Jose Fernando Serrano Amaya, University of Sydney, Australia Chair: Jeffrey Prager	1003
D	The Caribbean reparations: Inside and outside of black emancipation: Zaira Simone, CUNY Graduate Centre Chair: Lill-Ann Koerber	1006
15:30-15:45	TEA/COFFEE	Corridor & Courtyard
15:45-17:00	PARALLEL PANEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
I	Histories of Racial Violence In The US: Digital Collaborations And Dissemination Monica Munoz Martinez, Brown University Melissa Nobles, Massachusetts Institute of Technology Geoff Ward, University of Missouri-St. Louis David Cunningham, University of Missouri-St. Louis Chair: Margaret Burnham, Northeastern University	1003
II	Transcontinental Identifications and Confrontations in Commemorating Slavery Pasts Barbara Henkes, Senior Lecturer Contemporary History, University of Groningen Paul Tichmann, Curator of Iziko Slave Lodge, Cape Town Margriet van der Waal, Literary and Cultural Studies, University of Groningen/University of Amsterdam Maria Holtrop, Rijksmuseum, Amsterdam Chair: Elke Geising	Hofmeyr
III	a) E(race)ing the past: Narratives of "born-free" South Africans: Tarryn Frankish, Durban University of Technology, South Africa b) Black South Africans' reflections on the 'rainbow nation' and 'reconciliation': Thato Mokoena, Sterkfontein Psychiatric Hospital, South Africa c) "Making Right" for historical wrongs: youth exploring social restitution for a new South African future: Kyla Jane Hazell, Axiom Education, Umtata, South Africa Chair: Eleanor du Plooy	Raadsaal

Saturday 8 December programme continued

IV	The Past has Never been Past for Me: A Conversation on My Life Nomonde Calata, widow of Fort Calata, a fierce opponent of the apartheid government and one of the leading figures of the anti-apartheid movement in Cradock who was killed by the apartheid security police in June 1985. Nomonde Calata will be in conversation with Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela. She will reflect on her testimony at the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) at the first hearing of the TRC, what speaking at the TRC meant for her, and now, more than twenty years after her testimony, whether that experience has any significance in her life. Chair: Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela	1006 Limited seating
17:00-18:00	KEYNOTE ADDRESS Open to the Public	Venue
	Achille Mbembe, Wits Institute for Social and Economic Research	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
18:30-19.00	Refreshments will be served at the Adam Small Theatre
19:30	THEATRE PRODUCTION No Christmas for Us a theatrical adaptation of Nokuzola Zoe Bikwana's award winning script REGISTER HERE	ADAM SMALL THEATRE

SUNDAY 9 DECEMBER

09.00-10.00	KEYNOTE ADDRESS	Venue
	Making Art in the Light and Shadow of Historical Trauma Tamar Garb, University College of London Chair: Cathy-Mae Karelse	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
10:00-11:15	PARALLEL ROUND TABLE SESSIONS
Session	Session title	Room
I	Uitgesmyt: Film About the Violence of Forced Removals Siona O'Connell, University of Pretoria Chair: Linda Mann	Hofmeyr
II	Sweeping Currents: Violence and Redemption in 'Communion' Penny Siopis, UCT Michaelis Buhle Khanyile, Independent Researcher, Cape Town Chair: Sarah Nuttall	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
III	Modes of recognition and reparation in film and media in 'the global south' Felicity Collins, La Trobe University, Melbourne Antonio Traverso, Curtin University, Perth, Australia Mick Broderick, Murdoch University, Perth, Australia Susannah Radstone, University of South Australia Chair: Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela	Raadsaal
IV	Escape to the real: Formal and aesthetic strategies for representing historical trauma Elizabeth Swanson, Babson College, Wellesley, Mass. Alexandra Moore, Binghamton University, NY Belinda Walzer, Appalachian University, NC Alexander Hartwiger, Framingham University, MA Chair: Jeffrey Prager	1006
11:15-11:45	TEA/COFFEE	Lower Corridor & Courtyard
11:45-12:15	PARRALEL SESSIONS
A	Comedy and the representation of historical trauma Stephanie Bird, University College London Chair: Barbara Henkes	1006
B	The creation of transnational memory spaces: professionalization and commercialization of museums and memorials of genocide Stefanie Kappler, Durham University, United Kingdom Chair: Maria Holtrop	Hofmeyr
C	Extended Dialogues: Reframing colonial archives through collaborative photography and exhibition-making Christian Vium, Aarhus University, Denmark Chair: Reinhart Kössler	Raadsaal
D	Reconciliation in Canada: Short-Lived Rhetoric or Lived Reality? Dean Peachey, University of Winnipeg Chair: Jesse Arseneault	1003

Sunday 9 December programme continued

12:15-12:45	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
A	Reconciliation as Interdependence—some implications for theories of political transition Fanie du Toit, Senior Research Fellow, Institute for Justice and Reconciliation, Cape Town Chair: Erik Doxtader	Hofmeyr
B	Transgenerational reparation: A dialogical imperative to relational acknowledgement and accountability Christo Thesnaar, University of Stellenbosch Chair: Amélie Ekué	Raadsaal
C	Contested symbols as initiators of dialogue: Faith-based approached to “postconflict” Reconciliation in Northern Ireland Maria Power, Liverpool, United Kingdom Chair: Tarryn Frankish	1006
D	Historical Trauma and Bystander Indifference: How Digital Immersion Can Increase Empathy Anna Menyhárt, University of Amsterdam, Netherlands Chair: Marietjie Oelofsen	1003
12:45-13:45	LUNCH	Marquee
13:45-14:45	PARALLEL PANEL SESSIONS: Historical Trauma and Processes of Redress
Session#	Session title	Room
I	A Comparative Law Approach to Redress for Historical Injustice Robert Westley, Tulane Law School, New Orleans Nancy Jouwe, Utrecht University Thomas Craemer, University of Connecticut Chair: Webster Zambara	Attie van Wyk Auditorium
II	Restorative Justice Approach to Gross Human Rights Violations Stefaans Coetzee (youngest bomber of the 1997 Worcester Bombing, South Africa) In conversation with: Harris Sibeko, Khulumani Support Group, Worcester Deon Snyman, The Restitution Foundation, Cape Town and Chair: Andrea Durbach	Hofmeyr Room
14:45-15:45	PARALLEL PANEL SESSIONS
Session#	Session title	Room
I	Palestinian Suffering: Why the Boycott Against Israel Matters Roshan Dadoo, Palestinian Solidarity Campaign Ashraf Kagee, Stellenbosch University Armien Abrahams, South African Psychoanalytic Association Chair: Jeffrey Prager	Hofmeyr

Sunday 9 December programme continued

II	Indigeneity and historical trauma across continuity and change among the Khoisan in contemporary South Africa June Bam-Hutchison, University of Cape Town Siv Øvernes, University of Tromsø, Norway William Ellis, University of the Western Cape Chair: Rafael Verbuyst	John Murray
III	Reconciliation in Canada beyond rights: Land and sovereignty: Caleb Lauer, Balsillie School of International Affairs, University of Waterloo "Righting Colonial Wrongs" Anna Shirrer, Columbia University Howard Taylor, Columbia University Chair: Nancy Jouwe	Raadsaal
IV	a) Memorial Fatigue: The Case of the Western Balkans Ana Milosevic, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium b) Not all wounds bleed: Suffering and hysteria as suffering Aleksandra Rychlicka, University College London c) Learning to be freed within third space: Deep encounters with the unaccompanied asylum-seeking youth in Turkey Eda Elif Tibet, University of Bern, Switzerland Chair: Kathryn Keeble	1006
15:45-16:30	ROUNDTABLE PLENARY SESSION	Venue
	What Light Might Psychoanalytic Attention to the Inner Life Throw on the Repetitions of History? Jessica Benjamin, Practicing Psychoanalyst, New York Jacqueline Rose, Birkbeck Institute for the Humanities In Conversation with: Mark Solms, University of Cape Town	Attie van Wyk Auditorium

16:30 Closing Performance: A Surprise Rousing Performance
PRELUDE TO CELEBRATING ARCHBISHOP DESMOND TUTU
AND 20TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE TRC
Featuring Closing Keynote by Mary Montague